Poptropolis

Saturday, September 13th, 2014

Empire Hall, 3407 California Street, St. Louis
MO 63118

Poptropolis is a unique opportunity for seasoned and up-and-coming artists, performers and businesses to exhibit their talents. The show is to further the growth and connection between the St. Louis art and creative community. The event will be St. Louis's large full-fledged "Pop Art" show showcasing the best St. Louis Pop/Urban artists, Pop Art* inspired food, drinks, lighting and entertainment!

Poptropolis is very clear-cut, fresh, distinctive, electrifying, influential, salty and fashionable!!

*Pop artists create imagery from popular culture such as advertising, news, etc. Pop art employs aspects of mass culture, such as comic books, idols and mundane cultural objects of the time.

The art community needs your support! Vodka Bacon Studios is teaming-up with local businesses and organizations in order to push the envelope on this event. Your support goes directly to advertising campaigns for the event that will have the face of your business while expanding local artist exposure.

Our first event Boozart was a huge success in St. Louis, with over 300 attendees on a Sunday night. We are aiming for over 600 attendees for Poptropolis. See photos and activities at our website. www.vodkabaconstudios.com

We put countless hours in marketing our supporters and creating a professional, yet fun and unique event!

Our Past Sponsors: Mastermind Vodka, O'Fallon Brewery, Perennial Artisan Ales, Circus Kaput, Shell's Coastal Cuisine, Laclede Cab, Absolutli Goosed, Just Johns and Tucci Events.

We truly want to thank you for considering helping expand the art and local business community integration. It is extremely important for St. Louis to continue to have a growing art community.
